

IN-STORE BENEFIT

Host a Shopping Night for you and your nonprofit cause at Ten Thousand Villages in Glen Ellyn, and 15% of our net sales during the event go directly to benefit your organization.

1. We offer 3-hour time slots year round to best fit your needs. Contact us to reserve your slot now.
2. Publicize on your end, whether through social media or news publications, and we will let our shoppers know we're excited to partner with you.
3. Send a representative from your organization to host the event, and we will staff our store with our knowledgeable volunteers.
4. If desired, provide all our shoppers during the event with promotional materials or snacks.

OFF-SITE EVENT

Ten Thousand Villages is glad to spread the good news of fair trade by bringing great merchandise and artisan stories to your church, school, festival, or conference.

1. Contact us to set a date, time and place. We'll join you even outside our business hours.
2. Mention us in your announcements, and add us to your online and printed materials before the event.
3. Our knowledgeable volunteers will staff the event and sell our merchandise, as well as transport, set up, and break down our product.
4. We are always happy to share our stories, and if desired, we will share a more formal presentation about the life-changing benefits of fair trade.

SHOP FAIR TRADE.

Invest in our world.

Our mission: To create opportunities for artisans in developing countries to earn income by bringing their products and stories to our markets through long-term, fair trade relationships.

Ten Thousand Villages offers beautiful home décor, personal accessories, jewelry, and seasonal collections.
